

Amorosa

A showcase of Kansas City's finest musicians and dancers music.

wine.
possibilities...

Bach Aria Soloists

"(Director/violinist) Elizabeth Suh Lane is a marvelous soloist, chamber musician and someone who exemplifies the most accomplished and creative aspects of our finest musicians today." - Michael Tilson Thomas, Music Director, San Francisco Symphony

"The Bach Aria Soloists are individually some of the finest concert musicians in America...." KCSTAGE

Victoria Botero - soprano
Beau Bledsoe - guitar

"(Botero's) superior vocal abilities lifted the ensemble numbers to new heights. As a patron to my right said after the curtain call, "She's a soprano's soprano." Kansas City Star

"Bledsoe was a highly sophisticated musical partner. He played dobro like a Delta bluesman (in the gospel number) and flamenco acoustic guitar like a Spanish gypsy. Even his Schubert accompaniments, transcribed from piano parts, were pointedly musical."-Paul Horsley, The Kansas City Star

Owen/Cox Dance Group

"Jennifer Owen shimmered with the dazzling energy of a jewel."
- Anna Wheeler Gentry, Pitch Weekly

"Cox has built a reputation for some of the most interesting music in town."- Steve Paul, Kansas City Star

Thursday, September 18, 9:00pm
Grace & Holy Trinity Cathedral (Founders Hall)
13th and Broadway, Kansas City, MO

9:00 - 9:45pm food and wine
9:45 - 10:30pm music and dance
10:30 - 11:00pm more food, more wine
Wine generously provided by Master Sommelier, Doug Frost

Please RSVP by Sept 17th to tziganemusic@gmail.com
Hurry - seating is limited!

